ALL SORTS.

Yesterday was another delightful day.

Bill Lee of Reno was in this city yesterday.

Judge Mack has been slightly under the weather in Virginia City.

Marshall Humphries and C. C. Wallace passed up to Virginia yesterday.

Mrs. Dr. Hennessey is riding a 36 Waverley bicycle which is a beauty.

The Governor continues to improve and can now tackle a Palace Hotel beef steak.

There was another return leap year party last evening at Armory Hall with a large attendance.

Love: A pair of eye glasses in a morocco case, near the Episcopal Church. The finder will leave the same at this office.

St. Valentine's day is the next event and valentines will be in order. Cagwin & Noteware have foreseen the event and secured a choice stock of goods for the day.

A contract has been let to run the Strickler tunnel, near Colorado City, one and a half miles in length through Pikes Peak at an altitude of 11,580 feet through solid granite.

The Government, it is stated, will accept no bid below $111 for bonds. If that is so the Morgan syndicate will not get any as the syndicate bid was a fraction below that figure.

Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery. Since Olcovich Bros., reduced prices on dry goods other have imitated and followed, but they'll never catch us. We propose to keep in front and give values that no one can equal. We have reduced the prices on silks, and offer fine China silks, red, pink and blue 28 inches wide at 40 cents per yard. Other things in proportion.

The Weiland Saloon.

Whitney has assumed control of the Weiland saloon, which he proposes to run strictly up to the times. He will dispense the best liquor and cigars and fine old Government whiskey which slides down your throat like oil, tickling your palate meanwhile. Call and see "Handsome Whit." f11

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Petty Larceny Thieves.

A number of people, and some old enough to know better, have adopted petty larceny thievery as a regular business, in order to get hold of newspapers they are too stingy to take. All the papers in this city have suffered from the depredations of these sneaks.

A lady writes us that her paper is taken about every other day by a neighbor whom she well knows and asks if the Appeal will not leave two papers on her porch so that the larceny thief can have one and leave the other. We doubt if this would do any good, as a person that would steal one paper could hardly resist the opportunity of taking two, one to read and one to sell.

Yesterday morning a man was seen to step at the Appeal office door, take the Tribune and stride on. It seems a small piece of business to have a man arrested for the taking of a newspaper that is sold for five cents, but nothing less than an arrest and exposure will cure some people of such idle eggs, and from this on the Appeal will prosecute the newspaper thieves, men or women.

We publish this that when it meets the eye of some petty larceny thief who makes a habit of taking papers off other people's door steps, that he (or she)—for we know at least one female paper thief—kleptomaniac (when speaking of the gentler sex) will reform.

Any person in this city who cannot afford two bits for the Appeal, need only apply at this office and get the paper for nothing. When the cashable pay of journalism only comes at 25 cents a week no one need steal it.

Still Improving.

The following letter regarding the Governor's condition speaks for itself:

San Francisco, Feb. 8.

Friend Hanford:

As to the Governor's condition there is hardly anything to report. He is up yesterday at one of the windows and repeated the same today. He is yet weak but talks encouragingly of his recovery. He eats heartily each day and an occasional visitor is now permitted to see him.

The doctor is delighted with the progress the patient is making. Mr. Bottom's services were dispensed with yesterday, it being deemed unnecessary to longer keep him away from his work.

Miss Webster is a good and faithful nurse to the Governor. The patient gives but little trouble these days he is doing so well.

Respectfully,
THOS. WEBSTER.

Pay Gravel at Buckeye

The San Francisco Chronicle says: Hayward, Lane and the Hobart estate are in receipt of good news from their Buckeye group of mines in the Pine Nut district of Nevada. They purchased the property some months ago for $250,000 from the Ravercraft brothers. At that time the shaft was down 40 feet and giving good results. At a little below 50 feet, however, the deposit gave out. It was reported that Lane had given up the further development of the mines, but this was not true. For a long distance he worked through river sand; no gold was found, and all connected with the enterprise felt blue.

At a depth of 175 feet, however, pay gravel has been encountered and the spirits of all have been accordingly raised.

Although Congress has passed an anti prize fighting bill, Dan Stewart, the manager of the Maher Fitzsimmons fight, is still announcing that the battle will positively take place within three miles of El Paso, Texas. From the fact that none of the New York sports are investing in tickets to the mill there seems considerable confidence still left in the ability of the U. S. Government to handle the proposition on its own terms.

Mrs. Spaulding formerly of Virginia City has had another one of those queer attacks of "nervousness" on a Pullman car and is now suing the company for $100,000 for being put off the car. There are people who think that if the lady would change her brand of champagne from Roderer to Dry Mumm and have the latter dry up entirely, she would have fewer nervous spells.

Peter Matsen, a Swede, employed by the Merced Gold Mining Company, fell 200 feet in a chute at one of the company's mines near Coulterville, Cal. recently. Before the accident was discovered many tons of rock were dumped into the chute further mutilating the body.

Between the cathode ray and photography in colors the anatomist and the painter would seem to be in danger of being thrown out of their jobs by the camera at one fell swoop.

She Hopped and Lande.

The White Pine News gives an account of what is probably the first Leap Year wedding in this State. It says:

"Miss Jane Metcalf, aged 18 years, is the heroine of the first Leap Year proposal reported. The lucky man is William Lincoln, and, after the proper display of coyness, he said, 'Yes.' The proposal was made at a watch-night party, while the bells were yet changing their welcome of the first born year. Their marriage took place today. County Judge Bennett officiating. But it seems that although the bride was enough of a new woman to exercise the privilege of Leap Year, she retained some feminine weaknesses. Up to the time of her marriage her courage had not failed, but here her nature asserted itself. As soon as it was all over, the betrothal kisses exchanged and the usual vows spoken she sat down and began to cry. From tears she passed to sobs and from sobs to a condition of hysteria, and finally, to prove that she was in dead earnest, she keeled over in a faint. We say faint because we reject the theory because it was only a faint. But the knot was tied, and with almost equal expedition the couple went to house-keeping.

"Note, please, that there was none of the fainting nonsense until the crisis was over. It didn't matter then."

We trust this will encourage other girls in this State to jump in.

Newlands on Silver.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—The debate on the free silver substitute for the bond bill pressed steadily in the House today. The House met at 10:30 with less than thirty members present. Newlands awoke the empty echoes of the vast hall with a vigorous argument in favor of the proposed legislation of silver. He said that a single dollar nation in the world in debt and in a hard strait except the United States, and that we had done so the price of continued bond issues. Hartman and Keim followed in favor of copper, paper, and silver in favor of non-convertible.

Alpine Scenery

The Pearl of Silver scenery has arrived with Swiss cottages and snow-capped Alps. The mountains are being put in place and also the cottages. When Joe Ravercraft saw the Alpine mountains they looked so natural that he wanted to start in prospecting them.

CHEAP CUSTOM WORK A DECEPTION.

A style of tailoring is rapidly gaining headway which is but an imposition upon the consumer and a detriment to the workman. The cheap custom work or what is called "special order work," is a shrewd dodge for the purpose of deceiving the customer into the belief that he is obtaining custom work at ready made prices. The real worth of custom work lies in the exactness of the fit, and the thoroughness in which it is made. Cheap custom work is therefore inferior to ready made work.

Large concerns, some also engaged in ready made work have grown up of late and depend for patronage upon retail stores, and have numerous agents scattered everywhere soliciting orders and gain trade because of the strikingly cheap prices offered for goods made to order. As a rule these agents seldom obtain an order twice from the same person.

It is about time that this scheme was exposed to the people and ABE COHN of the EMPORIUM shows up the fraud. If you want clothes that fit and are tried on as often as is necessary call at the EMPORIUM Court House Building, Carson City, Nevada.
